

Ridesharing Has Its Rewards!

Consider these numbers:

Cost of driving alone each week $68.75

Carpool twice per week $55.50

Carpool five times per week $34.38

*Based on the 2009 IRS Standard Mileage Rate of 55 cents per mile, for an average commute of 25 miles round trip.

Share the ride with two or more people and save!

Carpool with just one person, and you can cut your commuting costs in half - saving more than $137.00 every month!

Tried Transit Lately?

Are gas prices getting you down? Try transit!

Transit is one of the most cost-effective means of getting around, especially when you consider that if you commute to work by car, figure about $56 in total vehicle expenses per 100 mile according to 2010 report by AAA. Consider one of the region's transit options and save!
