

Recycle More, Anderson County!

It's the law to recycle used motor oil in South Carolina.

That's right, it must be recycled. If you have your oil changed for you (at a car dealership, garage or quick lube), your used motor oil is recycled by that business. If you change your own oil, you must recycle that used motor oil.

Plus it protects your health and our environment.

Where can you recycle your used motor oil, bottles and filters?
