Health Licensing	2	$9,800.00

- IV. ANALYSIS: Atlanta Dental Supply Company, 1650 Satellite Boulevard, Duluth, GA 30097. Under a Consent Order executed October 7, 2011, the Department imposed a $12,600 monetary penalty with $10,600 of the monetary penalty stayed upon an eighteen month period of compliance. The $2,000 remaining payment was paid by the company. The company was found to have violated Regulation 61-64, X-Ray, for repeated failure to meet the service and installation requirements of x-ray equipment.

Previous Sanctions: None

American Health, 905 North Pearl Street, Pageland, SC 29728. Under a Consent Order executed November 9, 2011, the Department imposed a $15,000 monetary penalty with $13,500 of the monetary penalty stayed upon an eighteen month period of compliance. The $1,500 remaining payment was paid by the facility. The facility was found to have violated Regulation 61-64, X-Ray, for failure to ensure that the x-ray equipment was operated only by qualified, trained individuals and for failure to monitor the x-ray operators.

Previous Sanctions: None

Family Residential Care Home II, 23 Edwards St., Sumter, SC 29150.

Under a Consent Order executed August 8, 2011, the Department imposed a $500 monetary penalty with $300 of the monetary penalty stayed upon a three month period of substantial compliance. The $200 remaining payment was paid by the facility. The facility was found to have violated Regulation 61-84, Standards for Licensing Community Residential Care Facilities, for failure to have a staff member present in the facility while residents were present in the facility.

Previous Sanctions: None

Northwood Senior Living and Memory Care, 1267 North Main Street, Sumter, SC 29153. Under a Consent Order executed December 9, 2010, the Department imposed a $9,300 monetary penalty. Of the penalty, $3,216.14 was paid to the Department. The remaining $6,083.86 was used by the facility for consultation and in-house training. The consultation and training was required to focus on medication administration, notes and observations, training for special needs, and other areas that have a direct effect on resident care. The facility was found to have violated Regulation 61-84, Standards for Licensing Community Residential Care Facilities, for failure to have staff background checks, staff training, and documentation of patient medications or patient tests, and others. Many of these violations were repeat violations.
