A note of caution: counties with smaller populations may see substantial variation in mortality measures from year to year (and consequently in some of their ranks.) The three year moving average is an attempt to address this issue.

Numeric values in blue represent rankings by county for Heart Disease mortality for all races and numeric values in brown represent rankings by county for Stroke mortality for all races.